

Hi, I'm Bethany! - Auslan Grammar Worksheet

Watch the Auslan Story video and take note of how Auslan grammar is different to the written English text. Write down the Auslan grammar being used by the signer.

	ENGLISH	AUSLAN GRAMMAR
1	Hi! My name is Bethany. This is my sign name. I'm seven. I'm a CODA. If you don't know what it means, CODA means Child Of a Deaf Adult.
2	My mother is Deaf, my father is Deaf and my big sister Kat is Deaf too. My cat Blackie and I are the only ones who can hear in my family.
3	I love my family. Everyone uses Auslan to talk with each other and I've always used Auslan since I was born! If you don't know what Auslan means, it's Australian Sign Language.
4	Auslan is a very rich visual language, you know the saying, "a picture is worth a thousand words" it's like that in Auslan, and so much more, because you can pack a lot of details in just a few signs.
5	Did you know that some signs in Auslan make a lot of sense, like for example, how do you sign PIANO? What about BANANA? Auslan signs can be descriptive.
