

Auslan Picture Dictionary – A List of Sign Variations Northern Dialect and Southern Dialect

This book covers all sign variations the Auslan Picture Dictionary and related e-books:

Generally, most signs are the same all over Australia, and deaf people are able to understand each other.

When you meet and converse with Deaf people, you may notice some sign differences. The difference in signs is called sign variations, and is due to age, gender, school, region, and religion.

Southern Dialect
Vic, SA, WA, Tas, NT

Northern Dialect
NSW, Qld

The Auslan Sign Bank www.auslan.org.au is a great resource to check for sign variations for any other signs not listed in the Auslan Picture Dictionary.
